

XM radio is the best thing to happen to the media business in a long time!!
The instant traffic and weather channel is exactly what I need, living here in the nations capital. All the other stations either do a report every eight minutes or so, or if they give a traffic report more often, it is read so fast as to be unintelligible.
Leave XM alone. Why not have "free" radio improve their service instead??